Grand Hotel

Traveller Review

This was our first trip to Budapest and we had a great weekend staying at this hotel on an island. The bedroom was big, as was the bathroom (in fact I don't think there was a small room in the place). Both were very clean. There were comfortable beds and our room was very quiet at night.

The island is peaceful, so was ideal after walking around the noisy city all day. There's only the one hotel there. The rest of the island is a large park and local people relax and play sport there. Getting on and off the island was easy as the bridge is close to the hotel. It's easy to walk to this, but Bus 26 also runs up and down the island. This is great if it's raining but we had good weather so didn't use it. However, the bus connects well with other transport links (metro and trams) to the city.

The three-day travel card is excellent for getting round the city on any public transport. Taxis from the hotel, however, are very expensive. One was half the price when we booked it from a city restaurant to go back to the hotel one night. The restaurant in the hotel seemed good, especially with live music, but not cheap, so we ate out.

1. The writer thinks all the hotel rooms were
  - a) large.
  - b) comfortable.
  - c) quiet.
  - d) relaxing.

2. They enjoyed the island because they like
  - a) playing sport.
  - b) meeting people.
  - c) large parks.
  - d) quiet places.

3. They went from the hotel to the bridge on
  - a) the Metro.
  - b) Bus 26.
  - c) foot.
  - d) a tram.

4. The travel card was good for
  - a) eating in restaurants.
  - b) visiting the city.
  - c) walking round the island.
  - d) travelling by taxi.

5. They didn't eat in the hotel restaurant because
  - a) they didn't like the music.
  - b) they didn't like the food.
  - c) the taxi fare was expensive.
  - d) the restaurant was expensive.
